

The 2013 Report of the Corresponding Secretary

Women's Missionary Society of the African Methodist Episcopal Church

God is Great and He's Worthy to be Praised!

Where has this year gone? The year 2014 is upon us and to God be the glory for the mighty, wonderful, and extraordinary things He has done in 2013. I'm excited about the gathering that will take place in Little Rock, Arkansas, hosted by Twelfth Episcopal District's Bishop Samuel L. Green, Supervisor Phyllis N. Green, and President Charlotte Martin, under the leadership of our magnificent International President, Dr. Shirley Cason-Reed.

This year we continued with secretarial training on all levels at the EBM in Dallas, Texas. The information that was shared among us was beneficial and useful for all in attendance. In April, I joined and connected with Dr. Sherell Vicks-Crawford and Mr. Jon Ingraham at the LTI in Birmingham, Alabama.

The visit to New York for the twenty-fifth celebration of the WMS/NGO was a great experience. I joined my pastor, Jamar White, Sister Cheresa White and the Bethel AME Church family for an inspiring and informative Pink Out activity in recognition of Breast Cancer Awareness. I attended meetings of the WMS on all levels during this 2013 calendar year.

Looking forward to seeing you at the 2014 EBM: Welkom! Ahlanwashlan! Swagate!
Bienve'ni Welcome to Little Rock, Arkansas.
